

Public Events

The study process for the Haul Route Study is based on the Terms of Reference approved by the Combined Aggregate Review Team (CART). The following is a summary of the four public consultation events based on the Terms of Reference:

Public Event #1 (Public Information Centre)

- Introduce the Haul Route Study
- Present a preliminary statement of the problem and issues to be addressed
- Present an overview of some data and information collected so far
- Present a preliminary assessment of alternative transport modes

Held on
June 21, 2007

Public Event #2 (Public Information Centre)

- Present preliminary alternative routes
- Present the evaluation approach

Held on November 29,
2007

Public Event #3 (Public Workshop)

- Public input on the evaluation criteria
- Public input on the relative importance of the criteria
- Public input

Held on January 9,
2008

Public Event #4 (Public Information Centre)

- Share interim analysis of the haul routes
- Share interim evaluation results
- Obtain public feedback

Held on
June 23, 2008

Public Event #5 (Public Information Centre)

- Present the results of the evaluation of the alternative routes
- Present the preliminary recommendations on the preferred haul routes
- Present recommended improvements and mitigation measures
- Obtain public input